*"In the depths of darkness, hidden from your view,
Its appearance, a bright white, seems ordinary, it's true,
But behind this veil, a secret awaits, unknown to few.*

*An ancient method, but not without its pride,
A subtle change, a secret to confide,
Three steps ahead, each letter will abide.*

*Now, seek the code in the shadow of my rhyme,
Where motion conceals, a sign of the time.
Three digits await, a sublime paradigm,
Reveal my secret, find my key, in the rhythm's mime."*
